

THE CLASSIC

CLASSIC - RINGS

MVD has recreated this classical ring into a "Classic Unusual". This modern interpretation and unique and elegant form has been achieved through a clever and creative application of advanced manufacturing techniques.

The result is that rings are flexible, soft and yet full of stones. The settings are very close to each other giving an extreme sense of completeness, luxury and great value.

In this range the stones employed include white, brown and black diamonds, pink sapphires and tavorite. Each ring has been carefully coordinated with white or pink gold and brunito surface treatments.

These bracelets maintain the "spring" concept of the "rigid" rings. This variant maintains the unique and dense stone mounting of the Classic range in a more rigid structure.

The result is an impressive ring of quality and sense of value.

The stones employed are white and brown diamonds, rubies and tzavorite. Each ring has been carefully coordinated with white or rose gold and brunito surface treatments.

CLASSIC - BRACELET

These Classic bracelets are curvy, flexible and soft.

The particular design and construction of the inside face results in a smooth and scratch free design and does not catch on hairs. This adds another major comfort benefit compared with traditional tennis bracelets.

The carefully designed convex form permits both a larger visual impression, almost as if double, combined with an optimal and intelligent use of stones.

This collection of bracelets are available in either white or black diamonds or a combination of white diamonds with either Tzavorite, Blue Sapphires or Rubies set in white or rose gold.

CLASSIC - BRACELET

The feature of this collection the stone mountings are individually crafted to be perfectly equal in dimension for each range of gem size.

The stone settings are not the traditional encasement but mounted during the the formation of each stone casing.

The thickness of the casing has been specially designed and constructed to ensure that the base of each stone housing protects the wearer against any discomfort from the irritation from the stone whilst enhancing the visual effect of the stone.

Each chain link connecting the mounts are hand made.

The study of the combination of larger and smaller stones has deliberately created an even higher perceived value of each item.

This easy to wear and beautifully fitting necklaces are available in white and pink gold with either diamonds, rubies, sapphires or tzavorite.
